

Jean Lefort

French, born 1948

The French artist Jean Lefort was born in Paris. He grew up in the artistic milieu of the capital and enjoyed his education at the Academy of Fine Arts in the same city.

He became a true colourist and devoted himself to an impressionistic way of painting. In loose brushstrokes he creates balanced compositions.

Lefort paints lively scenes of the seasons and fresh flowers in a skilled and convincing way. Living colours and masterly rendered light are important technical features of this artist. The result is a warm and uplifting atmosphere. Moreover, his works convey a feeling of peace and joy, which they are well known for.

Nowadays Lefort's paintings are much appreciated by collectors all over the world.